REPORT OF SCHOOLS.

NORTH DIV.

First term, Mary E. Bailey teacher.

The teacher has been too long before the public to need comment.

Suffice it to say thorough work on the part of the teacher and pupils rendered it a very successful school.

F.

CENTRE DIV.

First term, Bertha S. Morrill teacher.

A thorough and efficient teacher with a fine elocutionary talent, made a noticeable improvement in the reading department and the result in other directions were altogether satisfactory.

F.

SOUTH DIV.

First term, Cordelia M. Withee teacher.

A pleasant school and experienced teacher impressed me favorably at my first visit, and the ready responses and interest manifested in the closing exercises were appreciated by a large class of visitors.

F.

MOUNTAIN DIV.

Miss Addie V. Powers, teacher.

This was Miss Powers' first term as teacher, but she quickly gained the confidence of her pupils, and labored hard for their advancement.

Her efforts were very successful, and the closing examination was interesting, showing that good progress had been made, and that her scholars thoroughly understood what they had studied the past year.

K.

BURPEE DIV.

Miss Nellie Dell Pressy, teacher.

Though this was Miss Pressey's first attempt at teaching, we were confident when we first visited her school, of a successful school year in this division, and we were not disappointed.

The teacher was thoroughly qualified for her position, energetic and faithful in the discharge of her duties, and having an excellent method of imparting instruction, the pupils under her care made very satisfactory progress in their studies.

K.

POPLAR DIV.

1st. term, Mrs Emma F. Cheney, teacher.

2nd. term, Mrs. Cora R. Blodgett, teacher.

We were fortunate in securing the services of these ladies, who were both teachers of experience and ability.

Under their efficient management the scholars in this Div. made very satisfactory progress during the past year.

K

SOUTH DIV.

Miss Cordelia M. Withee teacher.

Miss Cordelia M. Withee, who had charge of this school during the spring term, was retained for the remainder of the year.

There are some excellent scholars in this school and under Miss Withee's instruction good results have been obtained.

The exercises at the close of each term were very interesting, and well attended by the citizens of the district.

K.

OLD SOUTH DIV.

1st. term, Miss E. B. Morgan, teacher.

Although this was her first school, the discipline was good and the progress, in the several branches pursued, quite satisfactory.

2nd. term, taught by Miss Lizzie F. Peaslee, who is a fine scholar, and an exemplary, successful teacher, evidently qualified for a much larger school.

We rarely find so much careful and thorough work accomplished in our schools.

J.

EATON DIV.

1st. term. This school was very successfully taught by Miss H. Agnes Edmunds.

The most of the scholars appeared to fully appreciate the teacher's untiring efforts in their behalf.

The school, pleasant and profitable.

2nd. term, was taught by Miss Ida M. Hazen.

This teacher was diligent and faithful, the scholars interested, and the progress satisfactory.

Here are some scholars in this Div. who evidently intend to well improve their time.

J.

GORE DIV.

Miss Alpha R. Atwood taught the first term.

The teacher appeared well interested in the welfare of her school, and most of the scholars made commendable improvement in the studies pursued.

The second term was in the care of Miss Lucie J. Andrews, a well qualified and faithful teacher who has had much experience in teaching. Discipline good.

On account of sickness among the scholars, this school was closed sooner than we intended.

J.

CENTRE DIV.

Miss Bertha S. Morrill, who has had charge of this school for the last two previous terms, was so highly appreciated by the parents and scholars, that quite a unanimous call came for her continued service; consequently she was retained for the fall and winter terms.

Miss Morrill is an active worker, an excellent scholar, and for facility in imparting instruction has, but few equals.

Here are some scholars who intend to excel in scholarship and also in everything pertaining to deportment, in and about the school room. The work accomplished was quite satisfactory.

J.

NORTH DIV.

Miss Mary E. Bailey, having taught this school for the previous ~~ten~~ terms in succession, was retained for the fall and winter terms

She entered upon her duties with a determination to excel in her vocation, and with a care and watchfulness for the welfare of her scholars, both in and out of the schoolroom, that I have not seen surpassed.

There was some of the most thorough, successful, painstaking work done here during these two terms, and the result was satisfactory.

An excellent teacher ennobling her work by her own noble spirit.

ALWAYS AT THE TOP.

CONCLUDING WORDS.

The year past has been full of varied experiences,—joy and sorrow, sunlight and shadow. All have done wisely in some respects, foolishly in others. Our faults have been many, and you, gentle reader, are no exception to the general rule. You have perhaps failed to appreciate your privileges; neglected to use your opportunities to the best advantage. Much can be forgiven, however, if during the coming season you avail yourself of the superior inducements offered by

Our thoroughly alive, popular, and famous House, where buyers are never disappointed, and where prices are always below zero.
